ANNOUNCEMENTS.

PROSECUTING ATTORNEY.

EDWARD BAXTER—Please announce my name as a candidate for re-election to the office of Prosecuting Attorney, subject to the decision of the Democratic Convention, September 5, 1885.

Respectfully,
SAM. R. GOSWELL.

EDITOR BAXTER—Please announce the name of WILLIAM B. DUNBAR as a candidate for re-nomination for the office of County Treasurer, subject to the decision of the Democratic County Convention to be held September 5th, 1885.

MANY DEMOCRATS.

"FORAKER, the straddler," is the name he now generally goes by.

The Republicans of Maine are talking about nominating Jim Blaine for Governor.

The Philadelphia Times says: The country is beginning to wonder who dug up John Sherman.

BEN BUTLER announces that he has no influence with the present Administration. We are glad to hear it.

The report that the Cheyenne Indians, in Dakota, were on the war path, is contradicted at the Indian Agency.

A large body of influential Republicans in New York want Senator Evans to become their candidate for Governor.

MAXWELL, alias Brooks, the St. Louis "trunk murderer," is having himself pictured in the sensational newspapers.

MONTREAL is still afflicted with the small-pox epidemic. The deaths last week were 228, mostly French Canadians.

HON. EDGAR COWAN, ex-United States Senator from Pennsylvania, died at Greensburg, on Saturday, after a lingering illness.

MANY Democratic papers in New York are advocating the nomination of Hon. Horatio Seymour as a candidate for Governor.

JOHN SHERMAN's chilling, unparliamentary, bloody-shirt speech at Mt. Gleed, was delivered to an audience of 228 persons, by actual count.

ALMOND B. JOHNSON, Postmaster at Port William, Clinton county, Ohio, closed his accounts on Saturday by hanging himself in a barn.

Gov. HOADLY will open the campaign on the part of the Democrats, at Hamilton, on Saturday, September 5th. A monster meeting is expected.

HENRY WARD DEWEY has accepted the invitation of the Boston Board of Aldermen to deliver the public eulogy on General Grant in that city.

The Republicans of Iowa have nominated Senator Laramie for Governor, Mr. Hull for Lieutenant-Governor, and Judge Black for Supreme Judge.

The Washington Star says: "The Ohio Republicans will find it difficult to match their 'bloody shirt' campaign with the scene at Grant's tomb."

It is said that Senator Thurman will favor the people with several speeches during the campaign. This will be a rich and acceptable treat.

The Ohio Democratic platform means $2,000,000 more taxes for the people of the State every year—Alfred Bacon. This is a lie, and you know it.

GEORGE W. HARDACRE seems to be the most prominent Republican candidate for Senator in Hamilton. He will be a suitable counterpart to Mr. Fore Acre.

MR. W.M. CAPPELLAR, while running a Republican paper in Mansfield, is still bossing the politics of Hamilton county. He has a large contract on his hands.

The New York World well says that "if the Republican army in Ohio has no other standard than the bloody shirt, the battle will be over before it fairly begins."

The Cincinnati Times-Sun (Rep.) says: The serpent of sectionalism has been trampled to death by the multitudes from North and South, following Grant to his grave.

HON. S. S. COX, Minister to Turkey, has had a pleasant audience with the Sultan, but Abdul Hamid, being troubled with dyspepsia, never once laughed at Sam's jokes.

More Necktie Matinees.

A large crowd collected at Duluth, Minn., on Friday last, to witness the hanging of Wainman, who murdered his family last spring and then burned the latter's shanty to hide the crime. The execution took place at 3 o'clock. Only a few people were admitted to the enclosure, chiefly reporters and officials of neighboring counties. Wainman said he was ready to die.

Samuel W. Collins was hanged at Bowling Green, Mo., on Friday, for the murder of a man named Owen Uterback. Mrs. Uterback, the widow of the murdered man, with her two sons, aged 5 and 8 years respectively, were present at the execution. The murder occurred in September, 1884. Collins had heard that Uterback had been slandering his wife, and he sought him out and killed him for the offense. The execution passed off quietly in the presence of an immense crowd.

Henry Barnett was hung at Lonoke, Ark., on Thursday last, for the murder of one Nelson. He was a desperate character, expressed no regrets and showed no penitence for his bad deeds. He made terrible resistance on the scaffold, pretended to faint and fall down, and it took several men to force him to the drop and hold him up until the law was satisfied. Nearly an hour was consumed in this revolting work.

Charles Townsend (colored) was hanged at Huntsville, Ala., on Friday, for the murder of Nathaniel Freeman, but cutting his throat with a razor. He made a full confession of his guilt, and professed to be happy, with all his sins forgiven. On the scaffold he said: "I am going to leave this country. My soul goes into the hands of the Lord, and my body into the hands of my people." He died in fifteen minutes, his neck being broken.

The Case of Mullens.

The Republican papers have a great deal to say about the pardon of one Mullens, a Cincinnati police officer, by the President, upon the recommendation of Gov. Hoadly and other influential Democrats, after he had been incarcerated in prison for eight months. The President and the Governor did exactly right. The facts Mullens was simply these: Last fall the Republicans imported great gangs of negro desperadoes, thugs and repeaters, from Kentucky and other States, so as to have them vote at the State and Presidential elections. One hundred and fifty of these scoundrels were found in one den; and officer Mullens, believing he was doing his duty, had them arrested. But it seems that among the gang there were a few legal voters, and for detaining these with the others, he was tried, found guilty and sentenced to one year's imprisonment. Eight months of this term he served out, which, considering all the circumstances, was surely all that ought to be required to satisfy a technical violation of the law. Mullens is said to be a good officer, and has been very properly reinstated. The men who brought the negro thugs into Ohio to carry the State by fraud and violence for Blaine, are the men who ought to have been indicted and sent to prison instead of Mr. Mullens.

As agent of a syndicate of English capitalists, has been purchasing large tracts of land in Mississippi, along the line of the Louisville, New Orleans and Texas railroad. A large portion of land is in an advanced state of cultivation. The sale was made on the basis of $50 for land in cultivation, or $35 for denuded and timbered. The purchase money which was paid amounted to about $300,000.

INVESTIGATIONS by detectives have brought to light the fact that the explosion on board the excursion steamer, S. M. Felton, near Philadelphia, was the work of one Adriance Spears, who held large accident policies on his life, and was constantly getting himself hurt, until he was receiving an income of $150 per week. In this last case, however, he overdid the business, and blew himself, with others, into eternity.

The pleasures of the great convulse of Knights of Pythias at Cleveland, last week, were greatly marred by sad accidents. Sir Knight Henry F. Sargent and J. F. Farran, from Cincinnati, while out bathing in the lake, were drowned; and Brigadier General Henry Heimiller, of Columbus, while the procession was passing along Woodland Avenue, was thrown from his horse and had his right leg broken at the hip.

The new license law of Wisconsin, increasing the minimum rate of saloon license to $200, has now been in force three months, and returns from some 100 towns in the State show that the aggregate number of saloons has been diminished by 287, and the aggregate amount of annual revenue is $224,000 greater than last year, and that the saloon-keepers generally are under better regulation.

PREPARATIONS are now being made for an explosion at "Hell Gate," in the East River, between New York and Brooklyn, in which 275,000 pounds of dynamite are to be used, which, it is expected, will dislodge 275,000 cubic yards of rock, and thus deepen the navigable channel. Nearly two million of dollars have been spent by the Government in this work since 1850.

A large crowd collected at Duluth, Minn., on Friday last, to witness the hanging of Wainman, who murdered his family last spring and then burned the latter's shanty to hide the crime. The execution took place at 3 o'clock. Only a few people were admitted to the enclosure, chiefly reporters and officials of neighboring counties. Wainman said he was ready to die.

Samuel W. Collins was hanged at Bowling Green, Mo., on Friday, for the murder of a man named Owen Uterback. Mrs. Uterback, the widow of the murdered man, with her two sons, aged 5 and 8 years respectively, were present at the execution. The murder occurred in September, 1884. Collins had heard that Uterback had been slandering his wife, and he sought him out and killed him for the offense. The execution passed off quietly in the presence of an immense crowd.

Henry Barnett was hung at Lonoke, Ark., on Thursday last, for the murder of one Nelson. He was a desperate character, expressed no regrets and showed no penitence for his bad deeds. He made terrible resistance on the scaffold, pretended to faint and fall down, and it took several men to force him to the drop and hold him up until the law was satisfied. Nearly an hour was consumed in this revolting work.

Charles Townsend (colored) was hanged at Huntsville, Ala., on Friday, for the murder of Nathaniel Freeman, but cutting his throat with a razor. He made a full confession of his guilt, and professed to be happy, with all his sins forgiven. On the scaffold he said: "I am going to leave this country. My soul goes into the hands of the Lord, and my body into the hands of my people." He died in fifteen minutes, his neck being broken.

The Case of Mullens.

The Republican papers have a great deal to say about the pardon of one Mullens, a Cincinnati police officer, by the President, upon the recommendation of Gov. Hoadly and other influential Democrats, after he had been incarcerated in prison for eight months. The President and the Governor did exactly right. The facts Mullens was simply these: Last fall the Republicans imported great gangs of negro desperadoes, thugs and repeaters, from Kentucky and other States, so as to have them vote at the State and Presidential elections. One hundred and fifty of these scoundrels were found in one den; and officer Mullens, believing he was doing his duty, had them arrested. But it seems that among the gang there were a few legal voters, and for detaining these with the others, he was tried, found guilty and sentenced to one year's imprisonment. Eight months of this term he served out, which, considering all the circumstances, was surely all that ought to be required to satisfy a technical violation of the law. Mullens is said to be a good officer, and has been very properly reinstated. The men who brought the negro thugs into Ohio to carry the State by fraud and violence for Blaine, are the men who ought to have been indicted and sent to prison instead of Mr. Mullens.

The engineer of a fast train in Maryland was found stumped and almost lifeless in his cab the other day and beside him lay a dead chicken. It is supposed the fowl attempted to fly across the track just as the train came, and struck the engineer under the full force of its own impetus and that of the train. The injured man has not yet fully recovered from the force of the blow.

Gratefulness.

Mr. H. Sampel, Ottawa, Kansas, writes: "Dr. S. B. HARTMAN & Co., Columbus, O.—Gentlemen: I have suffered for seven years; have tried every medicine and many physicians, and all have failed. I went to Pittsburgh, and while there fell on the street, my breath seemed to leave my lungs, and numbers overpowered me. I determined to give PERUNA and MANALIN a fair trial. I used four bottles of each, and my trouble left, never, I hope, to return. I left Pittsburgh three weeks ago for Kansas, and thought, as I was going to a new country, I had better take a bottle of MANALIN with me, on account of the water, etc. I arrived here with one-half bottle. I found one of my friends in a pretty bad condition. The doctors were treating her for chills and fever. I did not know what her trouble was, though I persuaded her to use the MANALIN. She did so, and the first day she was doing her work. Now this seems strange, but it is, nevertheless, a candid truth. She took it all, and has never had cause to lie down during the day since she used the first three doses."

A Case that was Pronounced Incurable.

Miss C. C. Peck, 714 Jackson street, Milwaukee, Wis., writes: "Dr. S. B. HARTMAN & Co.—Gentlemen: I take great pleasure in telling you the benefit received from your valuable PERUNA. I have been suffering for about fifteen years with a severe cold and bronchitis (so the doctors call it). I was treated by different physicians, and spent considerable money, but received no benefit whatever. Dr. Fox, of this city, claimed I was to try your PERUNA. I am happy to say I began to notice a change after I had taken my second bottle. I took eight bottles in all, and now I feel like a new woman. If it hadn't been for PERUNA I think I would be in my grave now. It is a wonderful remedy, and I recommend it to all my friends."

Messrs. Baker Bros., Mt. Vernon, O., writes: "I have a good trade in PERUNA. It sells well and gives satisfaction."

PERUNA is sold by all druggists. Price $1.00 per bottle, six bottles $5.00. If you cannot get it from your druggist, we will send it on receipt of regular price, or you may buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it do not be persuaded to try some other, but order at once as directed.

Deaths Caused by Cancer.

Dr. John T. Nagle, of the Bureau of Vital Statistics, has prepared a table of the deaths from cancer in this city during the past ten years, from which it appears that in 1875 there were 416 deaths from cancer—three from cancer of the throat, four from cancer of the breast, and the remainder from cancer of other parts of the body.

Last year there were 725 deaths from cancer—nine from cancer of the throat, one from cancer of the tongue, and nine from cancer of other parts of the body.

The total number of deaths in the last ten years from cancer was 6,012, of which forty-seven per cent. were from cancer of the tongue, and eighty-two from cancer of the mouth.

The Reason People Despise Patent Medicines is because they are usually recommended to cure all diseases. This must be a mistake because the great success of the Extract of Roots (Siegels Syrup) is due almost solely to the fact that it is made to cure one single disease, namely, Indigestion, for which it is a certain remedy. The aching head, constipated bowels, causing languor and fatigue, vanish as soon as this remedy is used.

A. H. Toon, of Fancy Farm, Ky., writes May 12, 1884, as follows: "I wish to inform you that your medicine has done more good than any I have ever used, and I do hope this will be read by all those who are afflicted with dyspepsia, rheumatism and general debility."

J. E. Wells, druggist, Roscoe, St. Clair Co., Mo., writes and orders and says: "The Shaker Extract of Roots is the best medicine on my shelves. Those that have used the medicine have cured of them in the highest terms. Send another box." Gaudin

Mr. Babbie plays entirely by ear and is genuine cowboy.
